

Bangor School District Cardinal Hall of Distinction Guidelines

Article I

The name of this organization shall be the Cardinal Hall of Distinction, a program under the jurisdiction of the Bangor School District in association with the Bangor Historical Society and Bangor Scholarship Foundation.

Article II: Mission Statement

The Cardinal Hall of Distinction has been organized as a way of maintaining the rich heritage and tradition of the successful academic programs and educators of the Bangor School District, achievements of alumni from the Bangor School District, and contributions of community members. In addition it will serve as a means of recognizing, preserving and honoring the alumni, educators, and individuals who have made significant contributions to the importance of life-long learners and those who made the most of every opportunity. The Cardinal Hall of Distinction acknowledges the contributions and accomplishments of the individuals who are worthy of recognition and are examples for others to emulate.

ARTICLE VI: Procedures for Selection & Induction Class

Selection Procedures

The Bangor School District Cardinal Hall of Distinction Selection Committee will meet annually to select candidates based on the criteria. The Committee may authorize induction to a person/team who falls outside the defined criteria when justified by special circumstances as deemed appropriate by the Committee.

The duties and responsibilities of the Cardinal Hall of Distinction Selection Committee shall be as follows:

1. Attend scheduled selection meetings.
2. Annually evaluate the nominations of individuals submitted who fulfill the requirements for considerations.
3. Approve only those individuals who had significant and/or long-term contributions to accomplishments Bangor School District.
4. Evaluate and update the policies and operational procedures of the Bangor School District Cardinal Hall of Distinction on an annual basis.
5. Validate and approve all worthy candidates for induction.
6. Keep all actions of the Selection Committee confidential.

The voting procedures of the Cardinal Hall of Distinction Selection Committee shall be as follows:

1. The Committee shall review candidates based on information available at the time of the February meeting.
2. After open discussion about each nominee, a vote will be conducted for the purpose of choosing inductees.
3. If a committee member is nominated, they will abstain for that individual vote, and the Committee Chairperson will vote in place of that Committee member.
4. If there are more nominees, receiving 75% of the Selection Committee vote, than the allowed induction class size, committee members shall rank candidates in order of desired induction preference with their top choice receiving the first number. The nominees with the most points will comprise the induction class.
5. The annual voting of the Selection Committee will be confidential
6. Inductees will be announced at a pre-determined time following the final selection process and after the individuals have been contacted and indicated that they will be present or represented at the induction ceremony.

Induction Class

1. No more than three individuals may be inducted annually with the exception of the first two years, where the maximum per year will be five.
2. There is no limit to the number of times a person may be considered for the Cardinal Hall of Distinction.

Article VII: Announcement & Induction Ceremony

The announcement of those selected for induction into the Cardinal Hall of Distinction shall be made a week prior to the induction ceremony. The Cardinal Hall of Distinction Induction Ceremony shall be held in conjunction with the Bangor Homecoming Week. Special care will be taken to ensure that the presentation of one individual award does not overshadow that of another. Current Cardinal Hall of Distinction members and their families shall be invited and attending members will be acknowledged at the recognition ceremony. Inductees must attend their induction unless the committee has waived their presence and a proxy has been appointed to receive their award. Appropriate awards will be given to the inductees and the plaques describing their achievements will be displayed at the high school.
