

Unexpired Term Fulfillment/Vacancies

A vacancy shall be declared when the term of office of a School Director expires, when a Director changes residency from the town from which elected, upon death of a Director, when a Director resigns or when a Director is absent without excuse from three consecutive regular meetings.

When a vacancy occurs, the Board of Directors shall notify the officers of the town of the vacancy. The officers of the town shall then select an interim Director to serve until the next election.
