

Mental Health support when you need it

815-320-7300

Available 24/7

Trinity Services offers crisis support over the phone, and if requested, in-person responses to support your mental health needs.

Find the help and hope you need.

If you or someone you know is in need of immediate mental health support, please call to talk to a trained professional.