

Jade Millwrights, Inc. Scholarship

Jade Millwrights, Inc. is a local company begun in 2005 by father and son Hiawatha High School graduates. This scholarship was established to give back to the community that supports them. Their goal is to continue to provide locally talented employees with respect and admiration to prosper in their professional and personal lives. They value education, hard work, and dedication. Most of their employees live in the Hiawatha school district.

Four scholarships of $250 each will be awarded to graduates of Hiawatha High School who are enrolled in a university, college, community college or trade school. This is a one-time nonrenewable scholarship.

The selection of each recipient is open to all students who meet the criteria listed below. Academic achievement, community involvement and financial need will also be considered.

Jade Millwrights is responsible for selecting the scholarship recipients. Direct questions to Jade Millwrights by calling 785-544-7771.
