

The Auschwitz Experience in the Art of Prisoners

A Visiting Exhibit at Decatur Public Library

GRAND OPENING: JANUARY 19 AT 6PM

EXHIBIT OPEN: JANUARY 20 - FEBRUARY 9

Decatur Public Library

130 North Franklin Street

Decatur, IL

The Decatur Public Library and the Holocaust Education Center of the Champaign-Urbana Jewish Federation invite you to view this prominent exhibition of artwork by twelve survivors of the Auschwitz-Birkenau camp who documented their experiences during the Holocaust. This exhibit, featuring sixty pieces of art, is on loan from the Auschwitz-Birkenau Museum in Poland.

Exhibit Events

Pre-Exhibit Teacher Training for Professional Credit

January 17 at 5pm. Students wishing to act as Docents for the exhibit also welcome. Please register to attend.

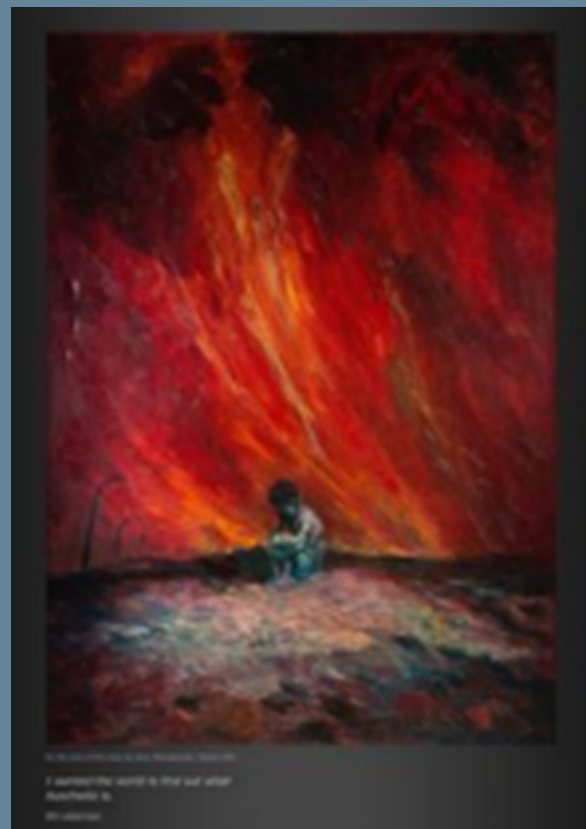

Grand Opening with keynote by Bob Lehmann

January 19 at 6pm. Please register to attend.

Presentation by Holocaust Survivor Dr. William Gingold

January 24 at 6pm.

Check <https://www.decaturlibrary.org/the-auschwitz-experience-in-the-art-of-prisoners> between now and February 9 for registration details and additional events, or snap the QR Code for more info.

DECATUR PUBLIC LIBRARY
knowledge | creativity | inspiration

Champaign-Urbana
Jewish Federation

Champaign-Urbana
Jewish Federation
Serving the U of J Jewish community for 80 years

HOLOCAUST EDUCATION CENTER

www.cujf.org